Jackie Devereux Progressive Water Colours

Presentation/demonstration Saturday 20th May May

Jackie's talk to our members began with the story of how she reached the point she is now at with her art. As President of the Royal Society of Graphic Artists she is particularly keen to promote skilled drawing techniques. She was most informative about the materials she uses and demonstrated some of her techniques using a sword line brush. We were also able to see some of her stunning finished work and browse through her sketch book. It is hoped that Jackie will return next year to run a workshop for our members.

Sue Williams Watercolour Demonstration Saturday 22nd April

An audience of nearly 40 members and visitors enjoyed an extremely informative afternoon as Sue demonstrated watercolour painting from a still life subject. As well as painting, Sue gave us a running commentary on every aspect of what she was doing so that members would leave with all the information they might need in order to embark on painting from still life. Seeing three paintings completed in just two hours was a lesson in the need to know when to finish a painting. A stimulating and enjoyable afternoon.

Changes to the Member Gallery –

The Council has decided that it will no longer be a requirement that images submitted to the member gallery must be of work selected for a NNAC exhibition. Members are now encouraged to submit up to 5 images of their work and a short artist statement/biography. The images will be referred to the NNAC Council for approval before acceptance onto the website. Please send jpeg images and bio, plus web link/address, if relevant, to nnartcircle@yahoo.co.uk

If you can, please make the images 750 pixels on the longest side. If you don't know how to resize images don't be put off. I will resize them for you, as long as they are bigger than 750 pixels originally. Smaller images will not transfer clearly to the website. If you are still unsure please e mail your query to the NNAC e mail above and I will help if I can. The NNAC has around 150 members, let's show the public the best of those members' artwork. It's a free presence on the web for you and may encourage new members to join us!
