John Glover Demonstration Saturday 27th January 2018

John's return visit to the Art Circle in January was again to demonstrate painting a portrait but this time working in oil. He is a very knowledgeable and sought after artist and his ability was clearly shown in the excellent painting he produced of our vice chairman Eleanor Alison. As well as entertaining us with tales of his painting career his talk was full of hints on oil painting in general and information on the use of colour, tone and composition. It is hoped that he will return to run a workshop for our members later in the year.

NOMINATIONS for ELECTION to COUNCIL.

It will be helpful if nominations can be made prior to the AGM and submitted to the Hon. Secretary. A proposer and seconder from membership is required.

This does not preclude nominations on the day.

At the AGM candidates should be prepared to give a short account of their artistic attainments, training or interests, and history, if any, in the NNAC. Prospective Councillors should be prepared to attend meetings (4 to 6 per year), assist at monthly events, help with selection, hanging and organisation of the annual programme.

Call to Artists

Artists with an East Anglian connection are invited to submit works for the exciting launch exhibition at the new Wells Maltings art space, opening Spring 2018. CONNECTION : OPEN 2018 will bring together the best artists with an affinity to the East Anglian Region to showcase the new art space within the landmark Maltings buildings on Staithe Street, Wells-next-the-Sea. Featuring 2-dimensional work in all mediums CONNECTION : OPEN 2018 offers a unique opportunity to view and purchase work by artists at every level of their career, from emerging talent to established figures. Works will be for sale, with the Maltings taking a 20% commission. A programme of activities, workshops and demonstrations will be run alongside the exhibition, for which there is an opportunity for artists to get involved and interact with the public.

Adebanji Alade Demonstration Saturday 17th February 2018

53 members and visitors attended Adebanji's demonstration at Framingham Earl High School and enjoyed two and a half hours of extremely stimulating and entertaining artistry. Adebanji describes himself as an addictive sketcher and advocates drawing on every possible occasion. He bought several sketchbooks with him the contents of which were proof of the benefits of practise.

Conducting a non-stop commentary throughout he produced a lively painting of the Ritz hotel in Piccadilly in which every step of the process was described and explained. An inspirational artist whom we hope will return to Norwich sometime and give us another chance to learn from an artist near the top of his game.
