

"A superb way to remember that special event, be it an anniversary, birthday, engagement or just an all too rare family gathering."

A flexible party package is available that can be tailored to you or your family's individual needs.

Before

- Discussion to establish what you want from your session

During

- At least one hour of photo coverage at your chosen venue

After

- Photo preparation and retouching
- Online, password protected photo viewing
- Personal shot selection session
- Luxury storybook (12" x 9") of up to 40 selected shots
- Option to purchase additional prints and enlargements

Only £199

The one hour of coverage included is usually enough time to get a selection of the more formal group shots at the start of the event (if required) and then some more inform coverage of the meal/party. For larger events additional coverage time can be purchased.

ADDITIONS

A number of optional extras are also available and include:

- Additional prints/enlargements (loose prints, mounted, or framed)
- Canvas prints
- DVD slideshow of selected images

SERVICE

- Geoff deals with all clients personally and takes all photos himself – work is not subcontracted. This means he can gain a full understanding of what you want throughout the process.
- The number of shots taken during the shoot is unlimited and will depend on the nature of the event. Rest assured you'll have plenty to choose from...!
- Turn around time after you have selected your shots until you receive your photos depends on products selected but is usually within a couple of weeks.

Hopefully this has answered some of your questions— but I'm sure you will now have some more so please contact Geoff to discuss them further on the phone or to arrange to meet to discuss in person.
