

Wednesday Group Programme September 2025 to February 2026

September 24th

Barbara will lead a painting session about the four seasons of the year. Participants will select a season of their choice and create an artwork, using their preferred medium, which depicts something which evokes a sense of joy.

Recommended Artist: Helen McNichol, whose landscapes radiate warmth and light.

October 22nd

Suggestion from Rowena - Self-Portrait, looking at how some artists depict themselves.

Recommended Artist: David Hockney

November 26th

This month we will try out using both our hands to make interesting art, not just our dominant one. Jackie will get us going on this interestingly different mark making ...more information nearer the time.

December 10th

Fun visual game or idea

January 28th

Maggie has suggested we make a striking and simple landscape where all the horizons are at the same level so we can make a long piece by joining all our paintings into a continuous picture, gradually progressing from one season to another.

Recommended Artist: Bet Low 1924 to 2007 and Wilhelmina Barnes-graham 1912 to 2004 Both Scottish.

February 4th Wednesday

Margaret is acting upon a suggestion by Rowena, where we are inspired by Lichtenstein working on a still life half flat colour and line, half black and white collage, making exciting and different interpretations of a still life!