Notes and Information

Membership of Derby City Photographic Club (DCPC) entitles members to participate in all activities organised or approved by the Committee. These include attendance at all meetings, eligibility to enter all internal competitions and the loan of books and DVDs from the Club library.

DCPC is a member of the North & East Midlands Photographic Federation (N&EMPF), which in turn is affiliated to the Photographic Alliance of Great Britain (PAGB). Members of DCPC are entitled to enter PAGB exhibitions and competitions, and the prestigious N&EMPF annual exhibition.

At every meeting of the Derby City Photographic Club members and visitors must sign the DCPC attendance book in legible capital letters.

In addition to the annual membership fee, there is an attendance fee (currently £3.00) payable at each weekly Monday meeting; other Club meetings may carry a different fee. Special meetings featuring expensive high profile speakers may incur a higher charge. There is no attendance fee at the Club AGM, which you are strongly encouraged to attend. The Club also holds social activities during August. There is no Club attendance fee at these events, though there may be an activity charge.

Club membership also entitles members to join and contribute to a private Facebook group. This is not an official Club function and as such is not controlled by the Committee, but members are encouraged to join to share news, comments and general help and information.

The Committee hopes you will enjoy your membership of DCPC. We welcome any suggestions/comments that you feel would improve the Club and its activities.
