

Painting & Drawing with artist Martin Laurance

My studio class runs every Tuesday and is an opportunity to develop and extend your own painting and drawing in a working artists studio in a central location in Norwich. Small numbers (maximum 6) ensures plenty of individual tuition.

Any medium and approach encouraged. A rare opportunity to work closely with an experienced artist to further your art. New techniques and skills will be introduced through demonstrations, practise, discussion and reference to the work of great artists.

Unlike workshops and other themed group days, each student is working individually, using their own ideas to extend, with guided help, their own visual vocabulary. My current students range from complete beginners to post graduates and all stages in between. I can help and guide you to further your art whatever stage you are at in your artistic development.

A 2hr. session each Tuesday for four weeks with a choice of times:

10.30a.m - 12.30p.m

1.30p.m. - 3.30p.m

3.30p.m. - 5.30p.m.

Starting 15th January 2019.

If a session is missed you will be able to attend another week (subject to numbers). Your payment will be carried over to cover that session.

Longer 4hr & 6hr sessions available; please contact me for details

£16.50 per 2hr class, 4 weekly sessions, total cost £66.00.

To book a place please pay in advance or a deposit of £46 and balance paid at first session. Please send a cheque to 'Martin Laurance' at the address at the bottom of the page. Alternatively, direct bank transfer on request.

It would be helpful if you could bring along some examples of your work to the first session for me to see what you have been doing and how I can help you develop and extend your own visual 'language'. You will also need to consider the areas that you would like to improve and develop.

Some additional materials available at cost price - please bring the paints, brushes, paper (and anything else!) that you usually use.
