

THE MAN

Michael is a Lifestyle, Portrait and Wedding Photographer covering Dorset, Hants & Wiltshire. After a spell as an accredited international training and animation consultant spanning 20 years, he made a career change and qualified as a personal development coach. About the same time (2004), he again picked up a camera and started photo- graphing portraits and friends weddings. This led to several Wedding and Portrait commissions and eventually, documentary and Travel commissions with photo-shoots in France, Thailand, Australia and Central America.

Michael's informal style and rapport with clients led to an increase in work and the photography business has since developed to where, in 2013, he was asked to supply work for auction by an International Animal Welfare Charity. This was followed by a recent exhibition of his work in Southern France.

He is also an Associate of IITT (Institute of IT Training) and a Member of the RPS (Royal Photographic Society).

The Business.

The Experience

Without doubt the biggest day in anyone's life. The last thing people need is someone with a camera noisily

A smile says it all!! shepherding people for "the next shot".

This is NOT the way it works. Mike will be busily, but quietly, working away in the background to produce a lasting memory of "Your Day".

Leaving you to get on with the most important thing of all.... "enjoying the day and creating memories!"

Hope to See You on the Day?

The Big Day

Wedding Photography is an experience for all participants. An informal, structured approach creates a calming atmosphere. Clients are relaxed. Sessions are enjoyable. Results are positive. Benefits are Immeasurable. Prices are extremely competitive.
